SUBJECT No. 25.

Institution of a separate examination for lawyers practising in criminal courts.

Mr. D. S. Hanumantha Rao, Devanhalli Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Owing to the abolition of the system of second grade pleaders, much loss is being incurred by parties in Bench Courts, etc. A separate examination for lawyers practising in criminal courts may therefore be opened for the benefit of the public.

SUBJECT No. 26.

Abolition of the post of Sanitary Inspectors for Sub-Taluks.

Mr. T. G. Nagappa, Turuvekere Sub-Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Appointment of sanitary Inspectors of sub-taluks is unnecessary.

SUBJECT No. 27.

Election of members to the Central Committee of the Economic Development Board.

Mr. P. Venkappiah, Shimoga Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Persons elected by municipalities situated at district headquarters may be permitted to be returned to the Central Committee of the Economic Development Board.

SUBJECT No. 28.

Improvement of the Geological and Forest Departments.

Mr. M. Venkatakrishe University.

Summary of Representation.—It is prayed that Government may throw life to the Geological and Forest Departments so as to make them yield more with the least cost to Government and meet the deficits which have, of late, become more frequent.

SUBJECT No. 29.

Providing Boarding accommodation or a hostel at Bangalore for Panchama Students.

Mr. P. Murugesam Pillay, Adi Dravida Abhivriddhi Sangham, Bangalore.

Summary of Representation.—Panchama students coming from the mofussil to Bangalore have been experiencing considerable difficulty for want of boarding and lodging facilities. It is therefore prayed that arrangements may be made to provide boarding accommodation or a hostel for them at Bangalore.

SUBJECT No. 30.

Increasing the number of backward and depressed class scholarships.

Mr. P. Murugesam Pillay, Adi Dravida Abhivriddhi Sangham, Bangalore.

Summary of Representation.—The backward and depressed class scholarships were formerly awarded for the full year, but now they are granted only for ten months. The amount thus saved may be utilised for giving scholarships to more students, i. e., the number of scholarships may be increased so as to cover the full amount allotted for the purpose in previous years.